Bad Manners

Imagine you live in a world where everybody has bad manners. Write a conversation between two people. At least one of those people should have awful manners!

If you run out of room above, use the back of this page or get another sheet of paper.

I don't mean to "bug" you, but you might...

- make a list of good manners. That will help you think about the things a person with bad manners might do.
- include in your story at least five examples of bad manners.
- use quotations marks to show when somebody is talking in your story.
